President's Notes

Our meeting this week had a new visitor, John Williams from Hello World Travel. It is great to see a new prospective members attending.

This reminds us that we need to keep asking and telling people about Rotary every day of the week.

Christmas breakup was discussed and will be the 8th December 2015 at 13 Tali Karng Close Rowville for all members and their partners.

Domestic violence committee is well on the way for a meeting this week and looking forward to the cluster involvement for this initiative

The board has also decided to give a donation to Andrea Lehane, the lady who was killed and left behind 2 children and her husband to bring them up on his own.

Members please check and make sure you are a Centurion for our target of 100% for our club.

*A big thank you to Debbie De Bruker for the pop up calendar stall at Knox City getting up about 70 plus teddy bears to give away for charity.
 We are also looking for a good speaker for the Business Breakfast in April and also a good raffle prize for this event.
 Enjoy your week no matter what you do. Our thoughts are with Carol Shaw at this time as she is not well and good to see Ian McLean back after his illness.*

Regards
 Kevin Harrison

I visited Daryl Moran (Dr Dazz) today at home as he is recovering from his second knee replacement this year. He is in good spirits and welcomed me at the door supported by two crutches. It took but a few seconds for him to show me that he could stand on both legs unsupported. Daryl is busy finishing his Masters thesis and indicated his next writing venture may be a book!
 We look forward to welcoming Daryl back as soon as possible.

Editor.

Families and Christmas

Each year at our Christmas break up we endeavour to support families less fortunate than ourselves. You can assist in 3 ways.

- Bring a toy suitable for a child to our Christmas break-up or get it to a club member if you are unable to attend.
- Buy a few items of non-perishable food for distribution to families at Christmas. Once again bring these to our Christmas break up or arrange with a Rotarian to collect them.

- Offer to assist the Salvation Army (Rowville) in packing Christmas parcels.
