President's Notes

We were privileged to have Irene from Donate life with us this week. She shared her life story of her kidneys finally succumbing to the disease Lupus. After years of dialysis and a constant refusal to have her mother's kidney, Irene's condition worsened to the stage where her mother's kidney was the only option. Seventeen years after receiving the donor kidney Irene has given birth to two healthy children and now works passionately to convince people to become organ donors.

Whilst it is OK to fill out the form and carry a card indicating your willingness to donate your organs it is equally imperative that you discuss your wishes with you family as immediate family have the right to override your wishes if they do not feel comfortable with your decision.

Follow the link below if you wish to register as a donor.

We also welcomed Laura Bodger to her second meeting and hope she will choose to join us on a permanent basis.

Business Breakfast: David Galbally has agreed to be our speaker for the upcoming breakfast.

David Galbally AM QC

Speaking on:
"Odd encounters of the defence advocate"

See below for booking details and location of the Business Breakfast

David Galbally is a leading Australian QC and an authority on corporate governance and risk management issues. His knowledge stems from an illustrious legal career as an advocate for companies and high profile individuals. David now also uses his expertise to guide a number of large organisations at board level including the industry superannuation fund, TWUSUPER where he is Chairman.

As a regular speaker at conferences in Australia and overseas, David makes a powerful impact when he shares his insight into how organisations can foster a culture that values the importance of corporate governance and the effective management of risk.

The son of one of Australia's greatest criminal lawyers, Frank Galbally, David at various times has represented Australia's leading sporting institutions including the Australian Football League and Cricket Australia. He has also worked on some of Australia's most high profile and complex corporate and criminal cases.

David is often called upon to comment and give his expert opinion on legal issues that arise in the media from time to time and has been a legal commentator on 3AW's Neil Mitchell program for many years.

His past sporting appointments include the Chairman of the Melbourne Knights Soccer Club and Board Member of the Collingwood Football Club.

He is currently a Partner at Melbourne commercial law firm, Madgwicks, Chairman of TWUSUPER, former President of Alzheimer's Australia Vic, former Chairman of the Royal Children's Hospital's Centre for Hormone Research and has recently been appointed as a Member (AM) in the General Division of the Order of Australia for significant service to the community, particularly through leadership in health organisations and the provision of pro bono legal services.
