President's Notes

It was great to see Millie Stathis back at our meeting this week. Millie has been supporting her daughter whilst she adds to her family.

Rowville Eyecare and Audiology were our guest speakers. Joe (Eyes) and Yin (Hearing) shared with us the major issues associated with deteriorating hearing and eyesight. Joe also shared some of his humanitarian work in remote parts of China where many children do not get the opportunity for quality eye care.

Our "Ladies Night" fundraiser for Cancer Research is on Wednesday 11th May at Tosaria's. Males are welcome! If you want more information contact Lorraine Knight (0408 347 676) or Heather Eddy (0419 376 743) for more information.

In July we will welcome this year's Youth Exchange representative. Camile DeGorgue is coming from a town in the north of France called Hinges.

Heather, Steve and Jeff interviewed two potential outbound Youth Exchange candidates this week and have selected a person whom they believe will be an excellent representative of Rotary, family and country. More details to follow.

Regards
Kevin Harrison
