A total of just under $5000 was raised on the night.

The story told by Frida Umuhoza at the Boronia Rotary Club meeting was both chilling and uplifting, but left us all with the knowledge of what an impressive young woman Frida is.

Forgiveness
is a gift you give to yourself

Frida grew up in a loving family with 5 siblings and a close array of extended family living in a village in Rwanda. Her father was a successful businessman and an entrepreneur who helped a lot of people in the community. This included building houses, paying school fees and handing out money to those in need. When she started school, Frida was unaware that she was of the Tutsi Tribe, nor did she realise the implications, but it became increasingly clear that there were grave tensions between the Hutus and Tutsis. Being called snakes and cockroaches was just the start of the hatred as things became increasingly tense. In her early childhood, as the racial tensions between the different Rwanda groups became more evident, Frida believed that her family would be safe as her father was such a good man and had helped so many in the community. It was hard to believe that the people they mixed with, went to Church with and who were their neighbours would turn against them. As the situation deteriorated and her father's business was taken away and he was attacked, the family thought about leaving the country, but movement was controlled so there was no escape. The radio began to broadcast lists of people who were to be killed.

Forgiveness
does not mean
reconciliation

On April 6th 1994 it was announced on the radio that all Tutsis were to be killed and machetes were provided by the Government. Soon a crowd of Hutus appeared singing "Kill, kill, kill". At this time Frida and her family managed to hide, but in May, when it was announced that the killing had ceased, they returned to their home. However, this announcement turned out to be a ploy and soon the killing began again.

The family was given the choice of how they would be killed and Frida asked a young man who had been in her father's soccer team to use a club. Frida lost consciousness from the blows and awoke in a pit with her massacred family and five hundred slaughtered people from her village around her.

This traumatic experience for a child of 14 would be sufficient to justify a life of hatred and for a number of years Frida was in physical and mental pain every day. She had good reason to hate the Hutus, to hate the UN for leaving her country to its fate and to hate herself for surviving. However, when she was 18 she became a committed Christian and this made a big difference to her life. She realised that she had to take back the power in her life and when she met the man who killed her father, the monster who haunted her dreams, she was able to say 'I forgive you'. Frida realised that forgiveness is not something you give those who have wronged you, it is a gift you give yourself.

Frida now is a mother and she feels that family is a gift. She has travelled extensively, even speaking at the UN and every where she goes she finds love.

For many years it was denied that this was a genocide, but in 2017 it was recognized in the UN that it was a genocide against the Tutsis with the intention of erasing evidence of this group of people from history.

Out thanks to Boronia RC for giving us the chance to hear this amazing story.

We look forward to reaching the 10,000 target and receiving our hoodies, courtesy of District.

Club Environment Chair, Gary Forrest, is happy to get his hands dirty in a good cause, as seen at the Queen's Jubilee Tree Planting last week. Great to have our newest member Kate Kidd join in the planting as well.

The second stage of this project will be much more extensive, as around 1000 trees will be planted, some time in 2023. We will look forward to many more hands involved in this activity.

- Birthday boy this week is Daryl, on September 18th. He is celebrating the milestone of reaching 70 with a family weekend away. Happy birthday from us all.
- Pleased to hear that Neil M is out of hospital and making a steady recovery.
- Daryl will get his birthday out of the way and then have a visit to hospital, for the removal of a pterygium on his eye. He will be isolating in readiness next week so will be missing from the Rotary meeting. When he is watching the Grand Final he will be a genuine one-eyed barracker, with an eye patch required for a week or so.
- Talking of one-eyed footy supporters, John and Neil will have a nail-biting night on Friday as they watch their team continue their campaign towards another flag. Go Cats!
- Heather and Bob will be on the road again this week, as they head to Sydney with a load of baby gear, ready for the birth of the next grandchild, due in early November.

48th Annual Knox Art Show

The Knox Art Show, run by RC Rowville Lysterfield and RC Bayswater, will be held in person and on-line this year. The venue is Knox Community Arts Centre.

Opening Night: Friday November 11 at 7.00 pm
Open for viewing Saturday and Sunday.

There will be the need for a lot of manpower to receive paintings, to hang paintings and to be part of the sales team over the weekend. In addition, it would be great to see a large contingent of Club members at the Opening Night. Mark this weekend in your diary NOW.
