Rowville Lysterfield

As we go to print, we have a change to next week's cluster meeting. Due to unforeseen circumstances we will now meet at Tosaria's Café with most clubs from the Cluster joining us.

Tonight, we had a staunch group of members (12) who assembled to pack 35 back packs and 35 Food bags for the Father's Day project for Share Space. Gayle Dye, husband Bryan and son attended the night, collecting the bags ready for Father's Day, via Kevin who transported them to Share Space on behalf of the club.

We got down to the business of unfolding the Back Packs and loading them with the goodies. In the Back Packs we loaded a variety of items including socks, caps, pens, bottle top openers, wet wipes, water bottles, reusable hot drink containers and many other useful items. The food bags were loaded with a number of items including savoury biscuits and Oreos. Thank you to Murray Wilson and Kaye Sharman who co-ordinated this community project.

Sadly, Tosaria's was broken into last week so we met in the main restaurant due to damages to windows. Tosaria's main inconvenience was the theft of PinPad devices, Server to take payments and expensive liquor.

Rotary Against Malaria

It costs just $10 to provide a child with a net to sleep under. The child is protected from mosquitoes, they get a good night's sleep, and they are more ready to take on a good education. Talk to Murray Wilson about RAM!
